Tim Carter

Tim began learning the violin at the age of 7 and went on to play with many ensembles in his home county including the Lincolnshire county orchestra. He joined the Royal Marines Band Service at the age of 16 and has been a professional musician now for some 27 years.

Whilst under training he studied violin under Professor Eric Sokell and saxophone under Adrian Brett and Derrick Holder. More recently he studied conducting with Malcolm Binney and Mark Heron. He also continued with his academic studies including composition with the resident professor at the Royal Academy Paul Patterson.

Whilst serving with the Marines he has gained his BMus (Hons) degree, a Licentiate in wind band direction from the Royal Schools of Music and an Associate of music from Trinity College London.

He has been working with the Southampton University Concert Band since 2012 with a small break in the middle while he was working in Scotland.

Tim holds a Private Pilots Licence and in his spare time enjoys building his hours and spending as much time in the air as possible. His spare time is limited however as he lives in Southsea with his wife Lisa, their two boys two year old Charles, seven month old Wilfred and Murphy the German Shepherd.

Kevin Withell

Kevin played piano from the age of six, before discovering aged thirteen that the trombone much better suited his personality. After developing an interest in conducting while still at school, Kevin moved to Southampton in 2010 to study for a degree in music, during which time he became assistant conductor of both university orchestras and was appointed as one of Southampton University Concert Band's musical directors.

Kevin completed his Masters in conducting at University of Southampton in 2015, and currently works as a teacher and conductor for Southampton Music Services. Kevin currently conducts Southampton Youth Wind Band and Southampton Youth Sinfonia, as well as running several younger training ensembles and working at Southampton Youth Orchestra as assistant director. More recently, Kevin has been in demand as a guest and deputy conductor at City of Southampton Orchestra, Downton Brass, Worthing Philharmonic Orchestra and London Gay Symphony Orchestra.

In the rare moments of peace when Kevin is not conducting, rehearsing or teaching, he likes to relax with a glass of cold ale in front of the snooker.

Tour

Some of our band were lucky enough to spend 5 days touring the Netherlands. We played three concerts at The British School of Amsterdam, ZIMIHC Theatre and the Dr Sarphatihuis Retirement Home. The band was conducted by our assistant conductors; Declan and Sophie alongside James Atkins - former assistant conductor. Whilst we were there we went on a boat tour through the Amsterdam Canals, visited the Heineken Experience and ran through Utrecht on our annual scavenger hunt. It was a great experience for all involved and are looking forward to our next Tour.
